

I feel the need for Morse code proficiency has passed and suggest we eliminate it as a requirement for Amateur Radio licenses General and Extra Class as many countries have already done.

I do not advocate the elimination of the code portions of the Amateur bands and hope this mode flourishes for those who wish to operate as such.